Homes Rising From Hiroshima's Atomic Ashes

Although there are still many gaping areas to be filled, Hiroshima, Japan, first target of an atomic bomb has made notable progress in rebuilding itself in the two years that have elapsed since the great blast in this Japanese city ushered in the atomic era. More than 50,000 new houses have sprung up from the city's rubble and more are going up every day. Long after the scars of the A-bomb have been obliterated, Hiroshima will be remembered as the unvelving place of this new power.

THREE KILLED IN BOMB BLAST

40 Prominent Jews Among Group Seized by British in Holy Land

JERUSALEM, Aug. 5 (AP)—The British began the biggest roundup of Jewish leaders since underground resistance turned the Holy Land into a battlefield today, a roundup punctuated by a terror bomb which ripped off the front of the labor department building and killed three British policemen and probably an Arab watchman.

More than 40 prominent Jews were seized in the swoop by the military and Palestine police some of whom reportedly were marked for deportation. An official source said 20 more were being sought.

The first official list of those arrested included David Stern, brother of the late Abraham Stern, founder of the Stern gang, and named 35 lawyers, businessmen, journalists and Jewish officials.

Among those reported arrested were dissident members of Haganah, illegal Jewish defense organization who had opposed the organization's "moderate" policy of opposing terrorism, and the mayors of the four all-Jewish cities of Tel Aviv, Ramat Gan, Petah Tikvah and Natanya.

The mayor of Natanya, Oved Ben Ami, who went with troops to the Eucalyptus grove near Natanya where the bodies of two "evacuated" British sergeants were found swinging in nooses the past week, had repeatedly appealed to the underground to release the two soldiers.

Layoff Scheduled For 51,000 at Ford

DETROIT, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Ford Motor company avoided a strike of 107,000 workers today but at the same time announced a layoff of 51,000 starting within 24 hours.

Each development stemmed from the same general source—the consequences of a dispute over penalty provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

In avoiding a strike, Ford compromised its differences through a last minute truce with the CIO United Auto Workers and kept its car production moving.

Less than six hours after the deadline for the strike that never came off, however, the company announced it would halt until next Tuesday all assembly operations at the close of tomorrow's work.

This was necessary, the company said, because of a parts shortage caused by the strike of 7000 workers in a supplier firm over the Taft-Hartley penalty provisions.

The Murray corporation of America, which supplies car bodies and parts to Ford and other auto manufacturers, has been closed for nearly two weeks by a CIO-UAW strike. The union at Murray demands an immunity clause in its contract to protect against employer damage suits permitted under the new law.

THE WEATHER

Bells Remind Jap City Of Atomic Bomb Blast

HIROSHIMA, Wednesday, Aug. 6 (AP)—Bells throughout Hiroshima today tolled a one-minute reminder that just two years ago the world's first war-dropped atomic bomb killed or left missing 92,000 of this city's residents and destroyed more than half of all of its buildings.

Hiroshima then looked to the future—hopeful of rebuilding, around a memorial to the futility of war, a city dedicated to world peace.

The day's theme was hope for the future. Only for one minute, at 8:14 a.m. (7:14 p.m. Tuesday, Pottstown time) the time of the atomic blast, did the city officially recall its disaster. For that minute, the bells tolled and the citizens stood in prayer.

Then General MacArthur's anniversary statement was read, warning grimly "war's destructiveness will progress until the means are at hand to exterminate the human race" unless the world profits from "the lesson of Hiroshima. God grant that it be not ignored."

Mayor Shunzo Hamai announced completion of a plan for a modern Hiroshima, featuring a peace memorial marking the site of the atomic blast. It was prepared with the help of Australian engineers.

Hamai said the three-day anniversary celebration which began yesterday is designed to encourage rebuilding of the city with the object of making Hiroshima forever a symbol of the futility of war. To date, about 20,000 temporary shelters have been erected.

Simultaneously Kyodo news agency reported that after two years of clinical applications to 300 atomic bombed patients from Hiroshima, the communication hospital reported that the house plastic surgery method had achieved the best results in skin grafts. Two other methods were tried.

The Krause method grafts skin from the patient's hips to affected parts. It proved not only painless but patients were able to commute from their homes to the hospital, Kyodo reported.

Youngster Injured After Dash From Between Parked Cars

Dashing out into the street between two parked cars, five-year-old Charles Shaffer, 58 South Adams street, was seriously injured early yesterday morning when he either ran into or was struck by a car driven by Robert L. Pocht, 710 Walnut street.

Pocht told Patrolman Thomas A. Lawler of the Pottstown police that he was driving west on Kutz street between Warren and Washington streets at 20 miles an hour when the accident occurred. As he drove along the street he noticed a group of children playing on the north side of the street. Just as he passed he heard a thump and the bark of a dog.

Believing that he had struck a dog, Pocht drew to a stop and got out of his car. As he did so, he saw the boy lying in the street under the bumper of a parked car.

Ordinance for Bicycle Safety To Reach Borough Council Soon

The proposed bicycle-safety ordinance—including the widely-acclaimed juvenile court feature—will be presented in polished form for action by borough council within two weeks.

This was announced at last night's meeting of the Optimist club sponsors of the move.

Since borough council's police committee has already given general approval of the ordinance, members last night expressed confidence that the ordinance would be enacted.

Elwood R. Anzstadt, Dr. Robert K. Karn and Dr. R. Perkins, the three Optimists in charge of developing the ordinance, will check every feature of the bicycle law. They hope to have a nearly-perfect draft ready for council action and

Former TWA President Also Paid Hotel Costs, Senate Probers Told

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (AP)—Elliott Roosevelt testified today he might be open to reprimand for letting plane manufacturer Howard Hughes pay a $576.83 hotel bill for him as a wedding present.

Roosevelt also told a Senate war investigation subcommittee that

Hughes' Turn Next

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5 (AP)—Millionaire plane builder Howard Hughes took off for Washington at 6:32 p. m. (Pottstown time) today to keep a date with the Senate war investigation committee, a spokesman announced.

Associates said Hughes' departure, in secret as far as the press was concerned, was from the Culver City field of Hughes Aircraft company. He flew in a B-23 converted bomber.

Jack Frye, former president of Trans World Airline, which is controlled by Hughes, paid $850 in hotel costs for the marriage.

But the son of the wartime President angrily challenged Hughes' publicity man, John W. Meyer, to say whether gins listed on Meyer's expense account were "procured" for him.

Roosevelt married movie actress Faye Emerson on Dec. 2, 1944. He said he objects to "insinuations" about her, and has no knowledge of a gift of $132 of nylon stockings to her listed on Meyer's expense sheet.

"It might be said," Roosevelt declared, "that it was inadvisable for me to accept a wedding present from Howard Hughes."

And he added that "I believe on a strict interpretation of the law I might be reprimanded."

During the war, in which he climbed to the rank of brigadier general, Roosevelt commanded photographic reconnaissance operations in Africa and Europe. As head of a mission which returned to this country for a time he recommended the Government order photo reconnaissance planes from Hughes' company. None ever was delivered during the war.

The Senate subcommittee is looking into $40,000,000 worth of plane contracts given Hughes and Henry J. Kaiser and is seeking to learn whether Roosevelt influenced the awards.

The hotel check paid by Hughes, Roosevelt said, was at the Beverly Hills hotel in California. The time (Continued on Page Five)

Council Votes 9-9 Tie On Civil Service Post

Appointment of one member to the three-man Civil Service commission was postponed for a month at last night's meeting of borough council as a result of a tie vote between two candidates.

Nominated in opposition to Herbert S. Myers, 1071 South street, the incumbent and a Republican, was Gerald J. Daly, 619 State street, a councilman of the Ninth ward and a Democrat.

The vote was on a straight party lines, nine Democrats casting their ballot for Daly and nine for Myers, after Councilman William H. Reifsnider, of the Sixth ward, moved that Myers' name also be submitted.

Reifsnider said he could see no reason why Myers whose term expired the past July 22 should not be named for another six years.

Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells explained that, as a result of the tie the question would be held over until the September meeting. At that time, he continued if the tie still holds, Burgess William A. Griffith will cast his vote to decide the issue.

Daly, the father of two children, has been active in local Democratic politics since he moved here from Philadelphia 14 years ago. His present job as councilman is the only political position he has held, however, and he has tried to run for re-election in the Fall.

The nominee for the commission is an inspector at the Dechler-Jarvis corporation, where he has worked for the past eight years.

Daly is active in the union, being a steward of Local 703, (Continued on Page Five)

One-way traffic signs will be placed at the High street entrance of the Reading Concourse today, under direction of Chief of Police James A. Laughlin.

Tomorrow, Friday, and Saturday, morning traffic on the concourse will be restricted to one-way travel between High and Hanover streets. This is in the form of a test, and it proves effective, borough council will be asked by the police committee to pass measures making the change effective.

Dollar Days Scheduled For Friday, Saturday

Pottstown merchants yesterday announced community-wide dollar days to be observed in local stores Friday and Saturday.

The dollar days sales events will be the first in six years, or before the United States entered World War II.

Practically all Pottstown stores are co-operating in the event to give Pottstown shoppers some of the most unusual bargains in years.

Crash fresh merchandise has been added to the counters just for this sale alone, merchants said.

Pottstown stores will be open Friday night until 9 o'clock to handle the vast crowds expected to turn out for the event. Local merchants especially are expecting hordes from the rural sections to shop on the gala sales days.

Saturday the merchandising marts will close at 6 p. m.

3 AMENDMENTS TO AID BUILDING ARE PROPOSED

Meeting Is Suggested By Commission; Delay Action on King Street Issue

Borough council last night authorized a public meeting to be held at borough hall Thursday night, Aug. 28, at 8 o'clock, when testimony will be heard on proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance. This action was taken on a recommendation by the zoning and planning commission, Horace Y. Seidel, chairman.

There are three proposed amendments:

One would permit the use of lots or premises as a trailer camp or tourist cabin court.

Another, sought by Stanley Swinehart, who wishes to erect multiple houses in a section of the Sixth ward, would change from R-1 and R-3 districts to an R-4 district the area of land bounded on the north and west by Maple street and by the east alley line of Cherry street, as the alley extends to the borough line, bounded on the south and east by the borough line and by the present boundary of the "M" zone.

Another amendment would require the present requirement of a 75 percent vote of council to enact changes or amendments where opposed by 20 percent of the property owners to permit enactment of such changes or amendments by a majority vote of council.

No further action was taken on an ordinance which has passed first reading and which would change the zoning of King street between Charlotte and Charlotte streets from a residential to a commercial area.

Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells said Borough Manager Dow I. Sears has sent back a petition signed by protesting residents in an effort to learn if they own 20 percent of the frontage represented in the area. Sears said he has received no further word from the petitioners.

Francis Bunder appeared as a representative of residents of Chestnut street, between Hanover and Charlotte street who have signed a petition protesting against banning parking on the north side of the street.

Action Is Started Toward Dissolution Of Water Company

Borough council took steps last night whereby the change of ownership of the holdings of the Pottstown Gas and Water company may be consummated and the present company dissolved.

Acting on the advice of Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells, a group was appointed consisting of Burgess William A. Griffith, President of Council C. Roy Bush and members of the Special Water committee J. Max Gresswell, Allen K. Davidson, Gerald J. Daly, Ralon Wells and J. Wayne Knause to act as a board of directors who will effect dissolution of the company and assign its assets to the borough. Wells said it is necessary as the final legal steps.

Borough Manager Dow I. Sears said present employees of the water company have been contracted and they have agreed to work for the borough.

Sears said the bonus for the $1,500,000 sale are now being printed and they will arrive in a few days. The sale will be signed by Sears and Bush. There will be (Continued on Page Five)

Swinehart to Erect 20 Homes If Zone Obstacle Is Hurdled

Construction of the first 20 units of a multiple dwelling plan has begun "tentatively," the zoning classification of the area east of Moser road and south of Cherry lane is changed from R-1 to R-3, Stanley Swinehart Pottstown builder, said yesterday.

The first units of the project would be ready for occupancy by Christmas, Swinehart explained, adding that he anticipated constructing 30 more next year.

He pointed out that the proposed project was part of a plan laid out in 1941 before the zoning ordinance was adopted. It was held up first by the war and then because buildings of the proposed design were prohibited under the ordinance.

Swinehart said that if the zoning change was approved "tentatively" at the conversion of a series of town and multiple lot priced dwellings approved by the Federal Housing authority. He added he would seek to have the homes approved or purchased under the GI Bill of Rights.

The homes will be constructed for either sale or rent. Swinehart declared and the price would be kept to a minimum. Sale price for the houses would be between $4,000 and $5,000 and a bath is expected to be $300, he said.

Rentals will be between $45 and $50 a month, he pointed out. He noted that this amount should be within the range of veterans seeking homes.

At present there are six designs (Continued on Last Page)

Egyptian Premier Demands Removal of British Troops

By LARRY HAUCK

LAKE SUCCESS, Aug. 5 (P)—Egypt today asked the United Nations Security Council to order the immediate evacuation of all British troops from her soil. British troops from her soil. Britain immediately countered with a demand that the council throw out the complaint as unfounded.

Appealing to the U. N. to free Egypt from "British imperialism," Premier Nokrady Pasha said the very existence of Egypt as a sov-ern state is here at stake with the presence of British troops a "potential peril" to peace in the Middle East.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate, said British troops were signed in 1936 and the council could do nothing but dismiss the case.

Cadogan said that if anybody was threatening peace in that area it was Egypt and not Britain. He added that Egypt was trying to evade her international obligations accepted in the Anglo-Egyptian treaty, which he said could be altered or terminated only with the consent of both parties.

"There is only one real issue before the Security Council, namely, is it a legal one," Cadogan declared. "The Security Council cannot, in conformity with the purposes of the United Nations, countenance any failure to fulfill treaty obligations which are consistent with the charter."

After hearing the Egyptian and British statements, the council postponed discussion until next Monday to give delegates time to study the arguments. The council then returned to debate on the Greek question.

For the second straight day the council did not take conclusive action on the Balkan issue and adjourned debate on the troublesome point until tomorrow at 3 p. m. (Pottstown time). Greece demanded that the council invoke enforcement action now against Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania. The delegates plainly appeared to be without hope that any of the proposals before the council would solve the case.

"We are here," the premier said, "to challenge the basic assumptions of Nineteenth century imperialism." The 10,000-word Egyptian speech with translations took up the entire morning session and the council recessed before hearing the British reply.

The premier said that Egypt no longer felt bound by a 20-year treaty, signed in 1936, providing for stationing of British troops in the strategic Mediterranean country. He said the pact was signed under duress and was contrary to the U. N. charter and a General Assembly resolution ruling out any occupation without the consent of the parties.

"Egypt has not given consent to the British occupation," he said bluntly.

INDONESIANS CLAIM DUTCH STILL FIGHTING

Netherlands Troops Seen Attacking After Cease-Fire Promise

By STANLEY SWINTON

BATAVIA, Java, Aug. 5 (P)—The Indonesian army charged tonight that Dutch troops on two fronts had violated cease-fire orders in the East Indies, and both Dutch and republican leaders indicated their forces would answer shot-for-shot any resumption of hostilities by opposing units.

A republican army spokesman declared in a broadcast that a three-pronged Dutch force—operating in a central Java zone—approximately 60 miles west of Jogjakarta—had continued attacking for two and a half hours after last midnight, the cease-fire deadline.

As a result of this action, the spokesman declared, the Dutch seized the town of Gombong, on the trunk rail line linking Batavia with Jogjakarta, the republican capital.

The spokesman's accusation was repeated in a republican communiqué which declared a violation also had occurred near Demak, 15 miles east of the north city of Semarang. The Indonesians claimed a Dutch amphibious force which landed near Semarang seized Demak and continued its advance southward after the deadline.

There was no confirmation of these actions from the Dutch, who previously had questioned whether the Indonesians could enforce a cease-fire among republican troops.

Fighting took place along the strategic north Java coast until shortly before midnight, a front dispatch said. Dutch columns speeding from opposite directions linked up a few hours before the deadline, giving The Netherlands complete control of a coastal area extending from Batavia 218 airline miles eastward to Semarang, this account said.

Man Admits Driving Car Of Gambler's Slayer

WAUKA, Okla., Aug. 5 (P)—County Attorney John Hannah said today a man who "feared for his life" signed a statement declaring he drove a car for the man who killed gambler Bugsy Siegel in Beverly Hills June 20.

Hannah identified the man as Virgil Clark Manning, 28, of Los Angeles. He said Manning told him he had served a term for forgery in the Missouri penitentiary. Records at the penitentiary show a Virgil Clark Manning served four years on a forgery conviction and was released in February, 1945.

Siegel was shot to death through an open window as he sat reading a newspaper. Nine slugs ripped into his body.

The killer is still at large.

Farmer Held in Triple Slaying

PRINCETON, Ind., Aug. 5 (P)—Officers summoned by a hysterical scream over a telephone hurried to a home two miles east of here early today and found a husband and wife shot to death and the decapitated body of a woman who had been living with them.

About half an hour later Roy Turpin, 48, farmer and former auto parts dealer, was taken into custody here and Sheriff James G. McDonald said he admitted orally the triple slaying.

The victims were Turpin's 50-year-old sister, Nora Turpin, and

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bateman. Turpin was held in jail here without charge. Prosecutor Luther Benson said he would inquire into Turpin's mental condition before filing any charge. First Sgt. Floyd France, of the Indiana State Police, who joined in the investigation, said he did not foresee improvement had recently suffered a nervous breakdown.

The bodies of the Batemans were found in their bed while the body of Miss Turpin was found near the telephone over which she called the Princeton police station.

Seven Acquitted in Lynch Case; Governor Scores Grand Jury

JACKSON, N. C., Aug. 5 (P)—Seven white men were freed today on charges of a lynching attempt upon a young Negro and shortly afterward Governor R. Gregg Cherry condemned failure of the Northampton county Grand jury to indict them as a "miscarriage of justice."

The Grand jury, by failing to indict, also freed the Negro, 24-year-old Godwin (Buck) Bush, who had been charged with an attempted assault upon a young white married woman.

Governor Cherry, in Raleigh, expressing disappointment that no indictment was returned against the seven white men, said action of the Grand jury "does not close the case."

The governor said he would instruct a Superior court judge to convene a court, sit as a committing magistrate, give thorough investigation to this matter, hear all available evidence and commit those charged for trial in an adjoining county. This he said he could do under authority given him by North Carolina laws.

"Undoubtedly a crime has been committed by those who entered the Jackson jail, and one of the members of the mob had confessed to the crime," the governor said. "The jury should have found a true bill in order that this evidence could have been heard in open court."

The report of the 18-man jury climaxed two days of tense courtroom proceedings. The grand jury had been asked by Solicitor Ernest R. Tyler yesterday to return true bills on each of three counts against the seven men: (1) kidnapping, (2) conspiracy to break and enter a jail with intent to injure or kill Bush, and (3) breaking and entering a jail with intent to injure or kill Bush.

Before a packed courtroom, Judge J. Paul Frazzelle told the seven accused white men: "You are at liberty to go." Broad smiles broke on their faces and they left the courtroom immediately.

American Firms Get Contracts For Greek Construction Program

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (P)—The State department announced today the award of $82,400,000 in contracts to American construction and engineering firms for work on Greek highways, railroads and principal ports.

The announcement, covering the first such awards for Greek reconstruction, was made simultaneously with disclosure that an advance party of American contractors had left by plane for Athens to start the work.

The contracts were negotiated on a cost-plus fixed fee basis without bids. The State department said they were awarded in accordance with the experience of the companies in work outside the United States, with personnel and equipment available, and with past performance on Government contracts.

The highway, railroad and seaport projects represent the physical start on a $300,000,000 program to bolster Greece against Communism. The recent Congress voted funds for the task and in the same appropriation bill set up another $100,000,000 for Turkish aid.

The largest block of the Greek work, $54,000,000, went jointly to these three companies for rehabilitation of railroads, highways and bridges—Johnson, Drake and Piper, Inc., New York; Guy P. Atkinson, Inc., New York; Guy P. Atkinson, Inc., New York; and Star, Park and Freeman, New York.

A contract for $17,500,000 for reconstruction of three Greek ports and clearance of the Corinth canal was awarded to Grove, Shepherd, Wilson and Krueger, Inc., New York; and J. R. Steers, Inc., New York.

A third contract for $900,000 was awarded to United States Steel corporation on a unit price or lump sum basis for fabrication of steel for 14 bridges.

Retail increases will not become effective until first shipment at the new prices reach retailers.

Car Recovered; Another Is Stolen at Hilldale

Police received word yesterday that a car owned by John Crist, of 80 North Adams street, which was stolen the past Saturday while parked at the rear of the Masonic Temple, King and Franklin streets, has been recovered at Kirkwood park, on Route 100, south of Pottstown.

A spare tire is missing, according to police. The car was located early yesterday morning. Police were notified yesterday morning that a car owned by Albert P. Florin, Road C Apartment 35, Hilldale Village, was stolen some time between 11 o'clock Monday night and yesterday morning at 6 o'clock while parked near his home. The automobile, a cabriolet model, is valued at $500. Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads is investigating.

Troop 8 Captures Most Scout Awards At Camp Delmont

Troop 8 won the greatest number of awards of any troop at Camp Delmont the past week. Scoutmaster Jack Eck announced at the past Monday night's meeting in Emmanuel Lutheran church.

The troop started off the camping week by being chosen to represent Valley Forge council in elaborate flag-raising ceremonies at Montgomery park.

The 33 members who went to Delmont remained at the top through the week, piling up a total of 95 awards.

Helping Scoutmaster Eck set the pace were assistant scoutmasters Ivan Frederick and Donald Fries.

Eleven tenderfoot scouts were promoted to second class, and one second class went to first.

Among the seven to win merit badges were Donald Miller and Robert Walters.

Rodney Heist, Daniel Strunk and Feryl Wansbold were among 32 winners of C-D's.

Richard Firing proved himself the champion stalker of Troop 7 last night when he won the contest by creeping within 20 feet of the troop's cairn at Camp Llovd being spotted by two hawkeyes on the cabin porch.

The 11 scouts present at the meeting suspected firing of using mirrors for no other stalker could get within 40 feet of the cabin without being seen.

Scoutmaster Ray Spichter and assistant scoutmaster John Jacob led the discussion of next week's trip to Camp Delmont. Troop 7 will send 11 scouts and leader Jacob.

Scouts of Troop 6 were shown the intricacies of rope splicing by Scoutmaster Warren Hoover at their meeting in Trinity Reformed church.

Plans also were made for the leader's council meeting tomorrow, which will map the troop's activities for the next two, or three months, including a father-and-son outing and several hiking and camping trips.

After their rope work, which is pointed toward the pioneering merit badge, the troop played games.

Fourteen boys of Troop 1 took upward steps in scouting at their meeting.

In investiture ceremonies, Jack Eacrus became tenderfoot, four made second class rating; Kent

Fazz, Robert Favinger, Mathias Yanos and Richard Marks; while six were promoted to first class: Harold Rohrbach, Gerald Diener, Bob Schneider, Carol Mest, Bob Keller and Donald Yanos.

Merit badges were awarded to Laverne Gaugler, Sam DiGiacia and Rohrbach.

What men want is not talent; it is purpose; in other words, not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.—Bulwer.

'Real Income' Stable

PURCHASING power of the average Pottstown family virtually is the same today as it was a year ago, a national monthly survey indicated yesterday.

After a sharp decline a month earlier, the "real income" index has returned to the level of a year ago.

The "real income" is the relationship of revenue to living costs. The "averages" are a bit deceptive this month because of varying conditions.

The continuing high level of purchasing power is due largely to the high level of employment, which even out declines in revenue suffered by many families which have lost heavy overtime and other abnormal sources of income. Thus many families have higher "real income" and many have less, making the average an accurate indication only of national purchasing power. It does indicate, however, that a better balance of income is being achieved, making more families good purchasing units.

Although the increase in food prices is apparently slowing down, farm income continues to rise and is now $12.87 for every dollar of income a year ago. This is an increase of 14 cents over a month earlier. At the same time, income from investments has decreased about 2 percent in the past month.

While costs of food, clothing and shelter have remained level up to passage of the new rent law—there has been a one-month decrease of about 6 percent in "miscellaneous" costs.

The economy of the nation continues to be sound and such inflation as exists has not seriously affected the ability of the people to buy goods in volume.

"Tough to be Young"

THE GRIM, serious demeanor of most college students today has some educators worried. They have never seen anything like it.

Dr. J. Howard Beard, director of health service at the University of Illinois, says the signs of the trend to the neurotic are too obvious to be ignored.

"Freshmen, especially, are beset by worries, harassed by fears. Too frequently they indulge in 'pick-me-ups'—cokes, smokes, coffee hours. Escapes, mental crutches, emotional stabilizers and sedatives are being sought for relief.

"They (the students) are longing for security. Life is tense. The stress is beginning to tell."

To Northwestern's famed and genial professor of English, Bergen Evans, the phenomenon is an aftermath of war.

"The students," says Evans, "have literally seen a world disintegrating before their eyes. The old landmarks are gone. No longer can they count on the comfortable feeling of dad getting them a job after they graduate."

"In addition, they are beset by immediate worries: lack of housing, overcrowding, the care of wives and children. They do not laugh easily, and when they do they are not sure what they are laughing at. Even the college humor magazines are dull beyond words."

To these plans, undergraduate reaction was varied. Said one: "It's tough to be young."

Give Pedestrians a Break

To the Editor: In a boxing show, a flyweight is not pitted against a heavyweight, neither should a 100 h. p. car be pitted against a one-man-power pedestrian. Let's ask and demand that the vehicle driver slow up, and stop if necessary, when a pedestrian is crossing the street as a designated cross-walk. Let's make the most important crosswalk, the one for the right-of-way when ever he makes a turn from a straight forward path, regardless of traffic signals. I am speaking of a vehicle receiving a green light, when there upon makes a right or left turn forcing his way without quarter through a crowd of pedestrians proceeding across the intersection according to prescribed rules.

Due to the inclemency of our weather so much of the year which makes it a chore for a driver to roll down his window to let movements to fellow motorists and pedestrians, let's promote more electrical or mechanical signals which by the ease of operation will insure their use, even by the laziest motorist.

Sure, there will be pedestrians who will dawdle across the street and walk with an air of "You just dare and hit me," and there will be motorists who will always be in too much of a hurry to extend road courtesies, but there is a sense of courtesy. When all the cards are laid on the table, only a few will take unfair advantage.

Atom Secrets Poorly Guarded

To the Editor: The two army sergeants who were arrested, and are now out on bail, on charges of stealing atom bomb secrets have done us a great service. They should receive congressional medals rather than jail sentences. They have shown how poorly guarded our secrets are and that for foreign agents to get them must be like taking candy from a baby.

To the Editor: Pottstown should have something different that would attract people for miles around. My suggestion is a house full of beautiful fish of all kinds, especially those from tropical waters.

I am sure this would attract a great many people to town and give us a lot of good publicity.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

TOMMY AND BILLY, aged 8 and 6, were in bed for the night.

"Who are your forefathers?" asked six-year-old Billy.

"Well, I don't know for sure," replied his brother, "but I think they were George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Roosevelt."

Billy thought about this answer for several moments.

"But that's only three," he finally objected.

Perhaps you have observed that children are literalists. It is only as they grow older in mental age that they are able to make deductions, draw inferences, and even appreciate a play on words of such simple nature as a pun.

Jokes that appeal to children usually do not depend on witty verbal sallies, or puns. Instead, they are of the anecdote variety. A child enjoys what we call slapstick comedy. Why?

Because there is an obvious cause and effect relationship. The old Chaplin example of throwing a pie into the face of an enemy symbolizes the children's type of humor.

When a dignified gentleman, wearing a silk hat, slips on a banana peel, the child and the average adult will laugh. That is a standard type of humorous incident.

Jokes of the sort illustrated by the dialogue between Tommy and Billy have very little effect on children. Even we adults may be caught short, so the speak, and stand gaping for an instant until the dawn breaks.

The farther we proceed, therefore, from a visible incident or anecdote, the more alertness is demanded for the appreciation of the joke. Homespun and pioneer humor are anecdotal or the story type, instead of the word twisting, clever quip variety.

You can turn to the comics in this newspaper today and apply several psychological tests for rating their efficiency.

Ideally, the same strip comic should interest both adults and children. If it appeals to adults alone, then it is but 50 percent effective, and the same is true if it has no interest value for anybody but the grammar school youngster.

Some cartoon strips are chiefly wise-cracking in nature, with very little action or suspense in the art work. The repartee and dialogue are thus forced to carry the chief load. Young children obviously don't care for these comics very much.

To test such a cartoon just blot out the words in the bubbles. If the remaining pictures have very little suspense or dramatic value, then this is a blurb cartoon, and is losing a large part of its effectiveness.

Some cartoons, however, are capable of holding interest and advancing the plot without any words at all. It is a more difficult job to create such a comic, however, and taxes the artist's ingenuity far more.

Some comic show as much originality and cleverness as a good detective story or an "O. Henry" bit of fiction. They have plot filled with interest value. The Katzenjammer are one such comic. There is always originality and newness in the way the boys outwit the Captain.

Other comics are largely gossip strips of growing children and teen agers. Some of the detective comics often run very thin because they have little novelty and originality. The artists have limited themselves to a stereotyped plot with the same characters.

Since children read the comics, they should be phrased in reasonably good English except for occasional dialect and slang.

Comics should tie in with the schools and help to teach correct English instead of opposing it with such statements as "Leave us go get a soda."

WASHINGTON

Special Pleaders Fared In Congress as Spenders

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—A review of lobbyists' effect on legislation during the recent Congress reveals that the supposedly heavy-spending representatives of the "interests" fared no better than the special pleaders for labor, the veterans, the farmers and similar groups which know from long experience that girl and champagne parties and Hollywoodish entertainment constitute a waste of money at Washington.

The utilities, for instance, obtained cuts in funds for irrigation, reclamation and power projects throughout the country. But the economies were largely due to the general bipartisan drive to reduce federal costs, and lower tax rates. Congressional inquiry had disclosed that many of these agencies were overloaded with payroll patriots, and spending cash for projects never authorized by the Congress.

But the power people lost their biggest battle. They failed to force through several measures designed to restrict the Federal Power Commission's power over the production and sale of natural gas, petroleum and hydroelectricity.

FACE: The real estate lobby has been assailed constantly for its activities against permanent rent controls and enactment of the Taft-Wagner-Elender housing program. Here again, as even President Truman recognized, a start toward releasing rentals from governmental regimentation had to be made some time.

Moreover, neither the White House nor the two Democratic introductors—Senators Wagner and Elender—lifted a finger on behalf of federal subsidization of home building over a period of years. And it is generally believed that the GOP leadership will revise this program at the next session for the political support it may win them in a presidential year.

Lastly, President Truman set the pace for turning this problem over to the private, construction industry when he scrapped the elaborate scheme outlined by former Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt. It was also Mr. Truman who lifted many controls originally designed to give preference to veterans and people requiring inexpensive dwellings.

FOOLISH: The fact is that the most clamorous, best financed and effective lobbies at the Capital are operated by such groups as organized labor, the American Legion and its allies, the farmers' paid, professional representatives, consumers' interests and the federal government itself.

Unlike John Meyer, who reported that he paid "party girls" $100 a night for merely dining with Army-Navy and WPB officials, they do not entertain on an openly lavish scale. But, year in and year out, their aggregate expenditures for headquarters, research staffs, legislative agents, special reports, propaganda movements and salaries will far exceed the more spectacular outlays by inexperienced industrialists and business men.

Indeed, the latter are not so extravagant as they are foolish in their use of money for its effect on Congress. Like Hughes, they usually expose themselves to Congressional investigations which make them look ridiculous.

DINNER-OUT: Wartime lobbying, as a matter of fact, was not directed so much toward influencing Congress as making friends around the White House and among Army-Navy, Maritime Commission and WPB officials. It was the final authority over the award and terms of contracts running into billions of dollars.

Donald Nelson, former WPB Chairman, was a frequent dinner-out, and his hosts were usually contractors. Army generals, colonels and even majors never ate or drank or lived so well as they did from 1941 to 1945.

Nor are they to be held especially blameworthy for accepting these invitations. Frequently, more important and necessary business was transacted over a portehouse or a Scotch-and-soda than over a Grand Rapids desk.

CHECK: White House relatives, secretaries and hangers-on likewise lived well during the bizarre era that was so well described in "B. F.'s Daughter." Elliott Roosevelt was not the only one who capitalized on F. D. R.'s prestige and power.

Incidentally, the Brewster expose' has President Truman's blessing. As former head of the Senate War Investigating Committee, he discovered how susceptible illustrious members of executive departments were to fleshpots for which somebody else took up the check.

"FAIR": The writer has received several letters from well-informed Californians anent his recent characterization of Governor Earl Warren as "ultra-liberal" and "pro-CIO." They take kind but firm inquiry to these adjectives, and further inquiry substantiates their objections.

Governor Warren is regarded by Californians who know him best as "liberal but not ultra-liberal," and as "fair to labor," not tied up with any labor group, and especially CIO.

Since publication of the original article that provoked these rejoinders, the Governor's approval of a law banning jurisdictional strikes has led both the American Federation of Labor and the CIO to criticize him and threaten his future advancement in politics.

MOTHER OF PRESIDENTS

In Hollywood

By JIMMIE FIDLER

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 5.—In a local gossip column the other day, I noticed a catty little paragraph about an almost-forgotten feud which, two decades ago, nearly disrupted MGM studios.

It was a classic in its way—that feud between Joan Crawford and Norma Shearer, each of whom, with considerable justification, considered herself entitled to recognition as queen of the Metro lot.

According to the recent blurb, Miss Shearer was offered an important comeback role by Warner Brothers, but hesitates to accept it because her former rival, Joan Crawford, now the No. 1 box-office attraction, would get together some afternoon over a cup of tea and patch up their quarrel. Norma's no kid any more, but she still could contribute nicely to the screen.

Silly? Of course, it's silly—but it's part and parcel of show business. The longer I rub elbows with actors and actresses, the more thoroughly convinced I am that they, as a general rule, are ruled by vanity rather than by financial considerations. I've known many a star who was careless about money, but very few who were careless about billing. And of those few, incidentally, none were women.

If that ancient jealousy between Norma Shearer and Joan Crawford actually is the only thing that prevents Norma from accepting a good comeback role, I wish the two gals would get together some afternoon over a cup of tea and patch up their quarrel. Norma's no kid any more, but she still could contribute nicely to the screen.

THE HOLLYWOOD PARADE: Alan Hale, Sr., and Alan Hale, Jr., sportsmen. The two Messrs. Hale, almost identical in physique, have embarked on reducing campaigns and, just to make it "interesting," are waging one another on their respective success, at the rate of one dollar per pound.

Gene Autry, precautionist. Mr. Autry, a most crafty man who has had long experience with the souvenir-collecting habits of his fans, is having a false mane and tail made for his horse, Champion, before venturing on another personal appearance tour.

Eddie Bracken, psychoanalyst. It is Mr. Bracken's observation that a Hollywood glamour girl never cares how much too warm she may be in a fur coat as long as she can make a rival burn.

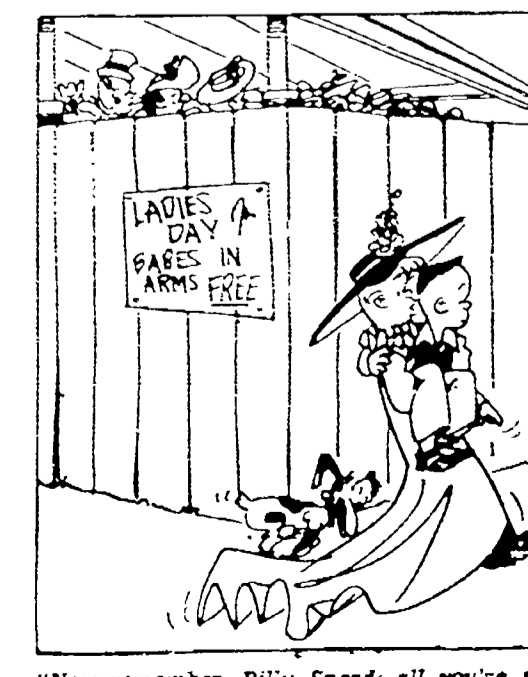

"Shotgun" Williams, make-up man. Mr. Williams, a former football star, invariably refers to wrinkles as "40-yard lines" and describes a face like Charles Laughton's as a "kick formation."

Betty Hutton's idea of heaven is a place where she can offer "temporary entertainment" to the other cherubs. Add sports enthusiasm: Dan Dailey, expert on water skis. "Yes, I think I'd go to filmstrips more often if Alice Faye were to return to the screen."

After South bids 1-Spade, North 3-Spades and South 4-Spades, why is a diamond the worst possible lead for West?

Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

News, News, News

Those in the know believe that by this time next year 12 percent of all domestic pictures will be made in New York City. East overtook with the K, scoring the A and then returning the 8 to force a ruff in the dummy. The purpose of making the dummy ruff was, of course, to keep declarer from leading through the guarded K three times. Following that trick, each declarer knessed the spade J and Q, then led the diamond J. There is where the difference came.

One West took the diamond J with his A and returned his heart J, compelling South to ruff. That declarer then went to dummy with the diamond 7 to the K and ruffed the diamond Q to shorten his own trumps to the same length as East's. Two, with the A-10 sitting over the K-7. Next he scored the club K and A and led a third club from dummy. East had to play from his two trumps before South, so his K was shut out by the grand coup.

At the other table, West let the diamond J with the sixth trick and took the 7 with hi A. That made it impossible for South to reach dummy, ruff a diamond, then go to dummy again to lead through East. So he wound up with three trumps in his own hand and had to lead to East, whose spade K consequently scored the setting trick.

Scanning News... Blooming Cereus...

August 6, 1947

WORRIED—Mary Ann Mills, daughter of Mrs. William E. Mills, High and Madison streets, is anxiously awaiting reports in the search for the missing military transport plane with 26 aboard in China. Mary Ann's close friend, Margaret Stephens, who visited at the Mills home last weekend, is a sister of Barbara Stephens, Arlington, Va., Time and Life correspondent who was aboard the missing plane. Margaret and Mary Ann became friends while attending Bryn Mawr college together. Margaret was graduated the past June; Mary Ann will be a senior next Fall.

DEBUT—A seven-year-old cereus plant, owned by Mrs. Robert H. Bohner, 846 High street, bloomed for the first time in seven years Monday night, filling the room with a glow and fragrance beyond description, she said. The rare plant, which blooms sometime in August for a period of two hours, and then closes up for another year, has soft white delicate petals, resembling a water lily. A member of the cactus family, the flower grows flat, rubbery leaves, which are attached to a long, heavy stem. Origin has it that the flower is connected in some way with the birth of Christ. Said Mrs. Bohner, "There seemed to be a star-like form on the flower, and the design deep in center of the petals resembled very closely the outline of a cradle."

Bohner, whose father operates Curcho's Flower shop, was given a slip of the rare plant by her mother-in-law some time ago, but Monday night was the first time any part of the plant had blossomed for seven years.

STANDING—Wages, prices, costs. That's what you hear today. So you may want to know just where you stand in the nation's family income scale. The New York Journal of Commerce reports the dividing line between the lower and upper 50 percent in family incomes as $2300. To be in the upper 30 percent bracket, a family must have a total income of $3100. At the beginning of the year, the 50 percent of the nation's families in the lower income group—those earning less than $2300, held 25 percent of the country's liquid assets. The upper 30 percent families held a little over 60 percent of the liquid assets.

PIPE STUFF—The pipe people have gone to a lot of work in conducting surveys. Two revelations have come out of the polls: Reason farmers don't buy high-priced pipes is because they break them too often in their work. And pipe manufacturers would rather have women shop for pipes than men. When buying a pipe as a gift, a woman will blow a lot more money on a pipe than will a man when buying for himself.

WALLOP—"Some recipe writer!" chortles Mrs. P. E. D. "The other day in the All Around Town column you said that to rid your premises of sparrows, give them a little music. I have a bird feeder tray just outside my kitchen window, a radio on the table just inside. Perfect, I thought, to try this suggestion. Up goes the window, lovely piano music on the radio and six sparrows on the feeder tray. Result: Not one sparrow flew away. In fact, two more came for the concert. Why do you do those things to me?"

HOW I wish I could convince every man and woman in this country that overweight shortens life. If I could, I could thereby save thousands from an untimely death and not only that, they would have beauty, grace, activity and zest such as they have never known before.

Believe it or not, this is one of the things about which all medical authorities agree. There is was passed by council two months ago. J. Max Creswell said the necessary signs have not arrived, resulting in the delay.

William H. Reifsnider made a motion that action be deferred out of courtesy to the resident affected. This was seconded by Gerald J. Daly and passed without any dissenting votes. In the meantime, the citizens will meet with the police committee, Leo Spaar, chairman, to discuss the issue further.

Council voted down municipal inspection of the meat animal industry. A communication was read from the board of health, Ralph L. Swately, secretary, stating that the meat in stores is being amply inspected at the present time, but recommended that council pass an ordinance which would impose a license fee high enough so that meat peddlers with trucks and stands would be forced to conform with the State requirements.

The communication explained that the cost would be high for the borough to have inspectors. It would be necessary to employ a veterinarian and the results would not be commensurate with the outlay of money, it was reported.

Reifsnider moved that the recommendation of the board of health be accepted. The motion was passed with dissent.

Charles D. Stetler, 54 South Evans street, was named a special police officer.

A resolution giving authority to advertise an amendment to the license ordinance, which would provide the imposition of a 10 percent tax on the gross income of moving picture theaters, was passed without any dissenting votes, but only after Reifsnider introduced an amendment to the resolution which would have reduced the tax rate to 5 percent.

Reifsnider's motion was defeated by a vote of 10 to 8. The vote on his motion was as follows: Yes—William Bernhart, Elmer Fegley, Leonard Hatfield, E. B. Heck, Peter J. Lawler, Reifsnider, Ralph Weiss and Harry E. Yergely; No—C. Roy Bush, Creswell, Gerald J. Daly, Allen Davidheiser, Leon Dearolf, Dr. W. L. Franck, J. Wayne Knause.

19 Burn to Death In Highway Tragedy

WAXAHACHIE, Tex., Aug. 5 (AP)—Eighteen Negro construction hands, who commuted from their jobs in Dallas and the white driver of a gasoline truck were killed today in Texas' worst 1947 highway accident.

At least four of the bodies remained unidentified tonight at two Negro funeral homes here.

William Romich, Charles Satterthwaite and William Taddell, 10 Reifsnider said, "I know the sponsors of this measure mean well, but I think it is to high. I wish to amend it to read 5 percent. The people of Pottstown will have to pay this extra tax and they have to pay enough now."

Solicitor Wells explained that last night's action on the tax question is not final. It must be advertised for four weeks in a newspaper and final action will be taken at the September meeting of council. If the tax question is favorably voted on at that time, it will become effective on the moving picture theaters on Oct. 2.

First reading was given an ordinance which amends an ordinance passed in October, 1942, which required the developers of large building projects to pay for the laying out and surfacing of necessary streets. The new ordinance requires the borough to defray the street costs if the developments are completed 100 percent or in street blocks where 50 percent of the frontage is built up. It passed first reading on motion of Daly.

Council passed a resolution authorizing the borough to lay out streets for the developments of Maple Gardens, Inc., of Paul L. A. Keiser. Grace from First avenue to Hanover and Mineral between First and Hanover street will be improved. This was on motion of Daly.

The request of the mercantile bureau of the Chamber of Commerce that the borough pay for the Christmas decorations was turned down, but there may be provision for it in the 1948 budget. Fegley made a motion that the finance committee make provision for it in next year's budget.

On motion of J. Wayne Knause, the Citizens National bank will be the depository of the borough for the water department funds.

A complaint was made by Yergely that many tree limbs are so low that the tillerman on apparatus of the Empire Hook and Ladder company is endangered by tree limbs. This was referred to the highway committee.

The Security Trust company was named disbursing agent for water bond payments at $50 per year for 30 years.

Third and final reading was given the ordinance amendment banning traveling carnivals.

Second reading was given an ordinance providing for sewer service on Master, Spruce and Seventh streets.

An ordinance allowing the use of amesite at commercial buildings passed second reading.

An ordinance making Eden street one-way from High street to South, passed second reading on motion of Reifsnider.

Burgess Griffith urged the councilmen to use good judgment in acting on the zoning ordinance changes. He said otherwise there might be damage to home building. He praised the efforts to better traffic conditions on the Reading concourse which will be given a trial tomorrow, Friday and Saturday when there will be one-way conditions between High and Hanover streets.

Contract Renewed For Bus Service

South Coventry school board members, meeting at the school Monday night, renewed a contract with bus driver Sylvanus Finko for pupils' transportation this coming Fall term.

It was decided that the group meet again with a PTA committee tomorrow night to plan for a new kitchen in the school building, so that hot lunches might be served to children through the class months.

The kitchen, with new equipment, will be constructed in one of the basement rooms, and work will be started in the near future after plans have been completed.

An inspection tour was made of the school building, which is in the stages of interior redecoration.

ceived official confirmation of the increase in the Federal grant from R. W. Young, regional administrator of the CAA in New York City yesterday.

In confirming the increased grant, Young said:

"Due to the revised estimate of the cost of construction of the Pottstown airport, the tentative allocation of $25,000 which was made to you on Jan. 10, 1947, is hereby increased to $40,000."

He informed Sears that Albert H. Wessel, district engineer of the CAA, would be instructed to expedite the project to insure the start of the construction at the earliest possible moment.

In view of the increased appropriation for Pottstown, and the fact that other communities have been refused aid in airport development, it was believed yesterday that the airport will figure in a key over-all strategic defense plan.

"The government seems to be particularly interested in Pottstown," MacMullen declared, and I am inclined to believe that someone planning the strategic defense of the country definitely wants an airport here.

"All of our industries are potential war plants," he went on, "and the government will want their products in a hurry when they want them. The airplane is the answer to that problem."

"In addition, Pottstown is a logical site for an interceptor field. With jet planes, Philadelphia, Washington and New York are only minutes away and planes from here could come to their defense as soon as an alert was sounded. I don't believe the Reading airport would be considered for a similar role under the planned dispersion of forces, since Reading is of sufficient size to be considered a prime target for enemy bombers."

A number of the engineers at the Stowe field yesterday agreed with MacMullen's viewpoint. Those who had experience with airfields during the war pointed out that the field would be an ideal interceptor base and concurred in the opinion that the government would be highly interested in Pottstown's industrial potential in the event of an armed conflict.

Missing Car Recovered In Chester County

A black sedan, owned by Mary Dimm, 252 High street, and reported missing at 11 a. m. yesterday, was recovered early last night near Black Horse hill, Chester county, by an unidentified woman.

The teletype message broadcasting information on the stolen car to county police was canceled via a new two-way radio system between the Pottstown police station and a county operated radio room in Northtown. This cancellation was the first message put over the system which promises speedier and more flexible contact between police.

Before last night's council session it had been expected that J. Albee Marquet, 1131 Queen street, a Democrat and prominent labor leader, would be nominated in opposition to Myers. It was believed that a last minute change in Democratic party strategy resulted in Daly's nomination.

Democrat Young for Daly were William G. Bernhart, Bush, J. Max Creswell, Allen C. Davidheiser, Leon Dearolf, Dr. William L. Franck, William Romich, William B. Twaddell and Daly.

On the Republican side for Myers were Elmer Fegley, Leonard Hatfield, E. B. Heck, J. Wayne Knause, Peter J. Lawler, Reifsnider, Charles W. Satterthwaite, Ralph Weiss and Harry E. Yergely.

Although Councilmen Leo P. Spaar and Mahlon F. Frick were absent, the latter en route to the State convention of the American Legion in Pittsburgh, their votes probably would not have broken the tie, since Frick is a Republican and Spaar a Democrat.

was shortly before his marriage. He was about to pay up, he related, when Meyer appeared, saying: "You cannot pay that bill."

"I said, 'Elbert went on. I certainly could and that I already had written the check.'"

Meyer told him, he said, that Hughes wanted to pay the bill as a wedding gift.

His acceptance, Roosevelt declared, had no connection with Hughes Aircraft.

The $850 paid by Frye, Roosevelt added, came out of Frye's own pocket.

"But you knew at the time," broke in Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), chairman of the subcommittee, "that he was connected with Hughes Aircraft company?"

"I knew he was connected with TWA, which is controlled by Mr. Hughes," the witness replied. "But I did not know he was connected with Hughes Aircraft."

In demanding that Meyer say whether girls were "procured" for him, Roosevelt stormed that it is "utterly dispicable" that Meyer should indicate "every girl he got was for me."

And, complaining that he wasn't getting an answer, the second son of the wartime Chief executive urged that the senators "clear up my moral record."

Under the heading "Col. Elliott Roosevelt," the committee has a record of Meyer's expense vouchers for entertainment totaling just over $5000 in 1943, 1944 and 1945.

take the youngster to the Pottstown hospital where he was treated by Dr. George M. Longaker. He suffered a fractured right clavicle, a possible fracture of the skull, lacerations of both hands and the upper lip, contusions of the left forehead and left cheek, and bruise burns of the left elbow and right knee.

Lawler reported there were no visible marks on Focht's car to show that he had struck the child, but that Focht believed the youngster ran into the car in the vicinity of the right door and front fender.

An investigation at the scene of the accident disclosed that cars were parked closely along the north side of the street. At the spot where the boy was hit there was a five foot space between two sedans.

Police believe the youngster darted through this space into the side of Focht's car. He was rolled or pushed under the front bumper of a coupe parked at the curb before.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR of The Mercury Staff

There comes a period in man's life when he'd rather not have a good time than have to get over it. Perhaps this means "middle age" creeping up, and it might apply to taking vacations.

But just because middle age is a time when you begin to exchange your emotions for symptoms, it is certainly no reason to balk against vacationing. You're as old as you feel, they say . . . so if you feel 30 when you're only 40, you might as well strike out on a tour. Perhaps you'd run into the Fountain of Youth.

Maybe you don't feel good enough to take a vacation. Middle age has been said to be the period in life when you'll do anything to feel better, except give up what's hurting you. Give up your job for a week. That's what is hurting you.

"The perfect vacation spot," Deer, Cherokee, N. C. Suchoza, 70 South Charlotte street, who is visiting in North Carolina. Her card pictures "Chief Standing Deer," Cherokee Indian reservation at Cherokee, N. C., drawing back his bow no arrow. Get the point?

Showing the Boy Scout Memorial at Plymouth, N. H., is this view card sent by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. O'Neill, 334 Chestnut street. "This memorial is dedicated to all Boy Scouts and vacation in a cabin along Loon lake, a few miles from here. An ideal spot to rest."

Miss Mary Eagle, 326 Vine street, Stowe, said, "This is where my sister, my brother and his wife, and I are spending ten days. The scenery around here is beautiful and the atmosphere on the camp grounds is wonderful." The card shows the church of the Nazarene camp grounds at Leslie, near North East, Md.

"Taking in the sights and wish all our friends were here with us," said Mr. and Mrs. Charles Endy, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Siaby, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Zelenki, all of that they were "having a wonderful time, and were enjoying the beautiful scenery" at Winona Falls, near Bushkill. "Staying here for the week. The fishing is fine." Their card shows woodland and a road leading to the falls.

The Holy Trinity Lutheran church, at Poplar and Atlantic avenues, in Wildwood, N. J., is pictured on this card sent by Catherine Runyan, and Florence Wright, all of Pottstown. They mentioned "having a swell time" there.

"I am spending my vacation with my sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hall, at Brooklyn, Maryland," wrote Mrs. Elizabeth Fiss, 232 Chestnut street. Her scene shows the Governor Ritchie highway between Baltimore and

Gov. Ritchie Highway, Md. Annapolis, Md. The inset pictures the Ritchie memorial.

Beryl Reed, Douglassville RD 1, and Ethel Bean, Pottstown RD 1, now back in town, had an A-1 time at Atlantic City where the weather was "fine and dandy" for them. Their card is a view of the beachfront from the Million Dollar pier.

"Enjoying the pool at Flinders ocean water is too cool. Staying at this place and having a wonderful time." So Ocean City, N. J. saw Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hymple and family, 925 Walnut street. Their card pictures The Daugherty, 708 Central avenue, in Ocean City, N. J., where the Hymples are staying.

Breidenbach Urges Better Planning for Planting of Trees

Planned planting of trees in Boyertown, as well as better care for those along borough streets, was urged by Solicitor H. Leon Breidenbach at the meeting of borough council Monday night.

Breidenbach mourned the absence of a shade tree committee in the community when the issue arose in connection with proposed plans for development of the Smithson tract at the west end of town.

Breidenbach urged that adequate space be left between the curbs and the sidewalk so that shade trees could be planted. He said that the proposed development presented an opportunity for tree-planting in the borough, pointing out that many of the beautiful trees here have either died or been cut because of improper planning.

The town solicitor said that in many cases trees have been planted with improper space for growth, forcing the sidewalk and curb to buckle and necessitating cutting down the tree.

Streets in Smithson's development are to be 30 feet wide, while most borough streets built in recent years are a standard 34 feet.

It was also reported at the meeting that nine property holders are

Boyertown Nurse Wins Scholarship

Kathryn Derr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Derr, 221 North Franklin street, Boyertown, was the 1947 recipient of the Hildebrandt Fund scholarship, Mary I. McCarthy, director of the Englewood hospital, public health nursing out-patient department announced recently.

Miss Derr is a public health nurse and is matriculated at New York university for advanced work in public health nursing. She has been a field nurse on the public health nursing staff of Englewood, N. J. hospital since 1944.

Funds for the scholarship came from a bequest to Englewood hospital made by the late Mrs. Winifred Williams Hildebrandt of Englewood in 1933. Mrs. Hildebrandt specified that the income from the bequest should be used for educational purposes of the public health nursing staff.

Upon receipt of the award, Miss Derr said, "This scholarship made it possible for me to continue my evening studies at New York university. The continued rise in living cost makes it difficult for nurses to finance advanced studies. Our profession would be greatly helped if others copied Mrs. Hildebrandt's idea," continued Miss Derr.

The former Boyertown woman is assigned to a district which includes Palisades park, Palisade, Edgewater and Richfield, N. J. In June, Miss Derr made 186 public nursing visits to the homes of residents in these towns.

She is living at present at 65 Division street, Englewood, N. J. She is a graduate of Boyertown High school, class of 1933, and Pottstown hospital school of nursing, class of 1938.

On the camping trip are the following: Wolf patrol, Richard Steltz, patrol leader; Richard Landis, Robert Stouder, Malcolm Koons and Robert Edinger, Flying Eagle patrol; Robert Reiff, patrol leader; Henry Johnson, Foster Del Grosso, Frederick Koons, Richard Hagenbuch, Carl Miller and John Graver, Flaming Arrow patrol; Jack Prain, patrol leader; Robert Koons, Daniel Hartman and Bruce Landis, Rattlesnake patrol; Herman Kumpf, patrol leader; David Steltz, George Unger, Richard Waller and Lawrence Miller, Apache patrol; Thomas Burns, patrol leader; John Breidenbach and George Schwenk, the reporters.

Boyerlown Annexes 31 Acres of Land From Colebrookdale

Boyerlown has a severe case of growing pains.

That this is true becomes more evident each month, as new real estate developments seek to tie themselves into the borough setup. That the town is growing is proven concretely by the annexation of 31 acres of land making up the property of Dr. Walter E. Smithson, at the west end of town, and by the development of Highland street at the east end of town. Both are to be restricted residential areas.

Borough Solicitor H. Leon Breidenbach reported Monday night that since no objections had been raised by Colebrookdale township to the Smithson annexation, its becoming a part of Boyertown was an accomplished fact.

The pains connected with the growing are not so evident, but they are none-the-less real.

The issue is simple: cost. Borough council is anxious to see the town grow; real estate developers are anxious to build and develop because of the present sellers' market in property. Houses are not the question; they can be built.

The cost issue centers around such elementary items as sewers, water supply, pavements, curbs and streets. In both the case of the Smithson property and Highland street, none of these exist. The owners want them, and the ultimate property holder will no doubt demand them. Who will pay for them?

The question has been raised on several occasions and was presumably settled when council agreed to annex the Colebrookdale tract. At both the March and April meetings, borough solons said they looked favorably upon taking the land into the borough but with improvement expenses to be borne by the property holders.

The opening of Highland street—already in the borough, so no annexation proceedings will be necessary—has raised a similar question. Council held a special meeting the past week and adopted a resolution saying in effect to the developers of the project: submit plans and specifications before you go ahead with an development in the utility field—sanitary sewers, water, pavements, curbs, streets; if they meet standards already set up, you will get an OK from the borough. Then get a contractor and have the job done. You will pay the cost.

Some interested persons feel the borough should put in the water main, their thought being that what has been done in the past should be a continued policy today. As far as sanitary sewers are concerned, the developers will put them in themselves. So actually the thing which is holding up Highland's development is the question of water service.

It was stated yesterday that six veterans are awaiting the outcome before building there. And in the meantime several lots have been sold outside the borough itself below Roads, avenue and holders intend to build houses there.

Soldier Confesses Robbery Story Hoax

Another fake holdup came to light yesterday when Michael Comstock, 188 Pennsylvania avenue, Phoenixville, who is stationed at Valley Forge General hospital, confessed a holdup he had reported to police early Sunday morning was a hoax.

Comstock had told police he was held up by three Negroes early Sunday morning on Pennsylvania avenue, Phoenixville. One brandished a gun and demanded his wallet. Police investigated and took the man to the police station for questioning.

Yesterday morning he broke and admitted in a confession that he had been paid, but spent the money and had no funds to pay his rent. His wife is confined to the Valley Forge General hospital.

Eisler Tells Court He Used Fake Name

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (P)—Gerhard Eisler, alleged behind-the-scenes boss of American Communist, acknowledged in Federal court today that he used a fake name on an American passport and that the U. S. Communist party financed two trips he made from the United States to Europe in 1935-36.

Speaking in a heavy German accent, Eisler testified that the only reason he came to this country in "late 1933 or early 1934" was to get help for the German underground in fighting Hitler.

Eisler is on trial charged with passport fraud. He is specifically accused of aiding his Communist party affiliations in applying for an exit visa in September, 1945.

June Wage Earnings Establish New Mark

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5 (P)—The bureau of labor statistics estimated today that the average earnings of factory workers in June were $1.22 an hour and $48.91 a week—both new records.

The preliminary estimates, to be adjusted later, show hourly earnings in the first half of the year have increased slightly over five percent.

During this period last year, the increase was eight percent, reflecting the difference between the so-called "first round" of postwar wage increases and the "second round."

Weekly earnings have risen almost four percent in the first six months of 1947, despite a slight reduction in the work week since January. The June weekly figure of $1.22 compares with $1.208 in May. The June weekly figure of $48.91 compares with the May average of $48.46.

In the durable goods industries (steel, autos, etc.) the average hourly earnings rose to $1.234 and the average weekly earnings to $52.39.

In the non-durable goods industries (food, textiles, chemicals, etc.) the average hourly earnings rose to $1.138 and the average weekly earnings to $45.08.

FAY CONFESSION

Smilie said that he would not file any charges against Fay until State police at Collegeville complete their investigation.

In answer to a statement by Stack that Fay would be kept in Pottstown until Smilie makes a request to have him sent east, Smilie said that the State police are in charge of the case, and "it is up to them to bring him back without any request from me."

The confused series of confessions, repudiations, and further admissions of guilt began in McKeesport the past Wednesday, when Fay was captured after he had raped a 5-year-old girl there.

Under questioning in Allegheny county, he said that he killed the Thompson girl, and was brought to Montgomery county to re-enact his crime.

Sunday he took two carloads of officials and police on a fruitless chase through Montgomery and Chester counties, centering his "re-enactment" at Upland, Chester county, 25 miles from the spot where Carol Ann's body had been found in a well.

After the long ride he broke down and said that his confession had been a hoax.

Monday morning, as he was about to be returned to Pittsburgh, Fay insisted once again that he had raped and slain the little girl, but was nervous in the face of the crowd of police and did not want to involve Hogz, whose car he used.

Monday afternoon he led police directly to the clearing where he strangled the girl in the car and attacked her upon the ground, as well as the well where he tossed her body.

Following the second tour, Fay signed a six-page statement of his story, which convinced his questioners that they finally had the murderer in their custody.

OPTIMIST CLUB

meet of the Pottstown Model Airplane club at the Daniel Boone Homestead Sept. 14. The request was made by Ed Jameson, of the model club. He said the meet should draw about 400 gas or rubber-powered planes. He added that it would be open to plane owners of all ages.

Finally, the Optimists announced that they will have a community-wide collection of empty bottles—large or small, blue or white, round or square. Residents are asked to leave their empties on the sidewalk Aug. 16, when the club will send trucks around to pick them up.

The money raised from the sale of these bottles will be used for future boys' work activities.

Next week the club will meet at Clover Leaf restaurant at 6:15 p. m. There will be a boys' night program featuring a western movie.

Last night's meeting was held in the Elk's home. Amoslight presided in the absence of Dr. A. A. Gallo.

Authorities in Allegheny and Montgomery counties are expected to confer as to which case indictments first will be sought against the 33-year-old former steelworker.

Because of the more serious nature of the crime near Lansdale—the girl raped by Fay in McKeesport is recovering in a hospital—it is supposed that Fay will stand trial first in Norristown.

SWINEHART

which Swinehart has under consideration. While he has not made a choice as yet, he believed the homes would be constructed in a modified colonial style with sufficient space for large lawns.

A veteran builder, Swinehart has constructed more than 400 of the existing dwellings in Pottstown. He expressed full confidence in his ability to build the 50 additional units next year, pointing out that he constructed 42 units during a single depression year.

Building restrictions on the tract now under consideration will be the same as those registered in Norristown when the plan was first proposed. Some areas now built up will contain only small units while the new construction of the multiple dwellings will be restricted to that area originally considered under the plan.
